

I am writing to urge you not to weaken the Indiana No Call law. I understand that the Consumer Bankers Association is trying to amend this law. My telephone is paid for by me and is for my personal use. I do not like the invasion of privacy that solicitors may have by bothering me by telephone.

Please let the Indiana No Call Law stand as is.

Sincerely
Russell Mueller